

GLOBAL HEALTHTECH NEWS

Co-financed by

Gore secures CE Mark for venous stent to treat inferior vena cava

10 June 2026

Gore, a US multinational manufacturer, has secured CE Mark approval for its Gore Viabahn Fortegra venous stent to treat patients with deep venous disease.

MHRA to roll out new AI sandbox for medicines development

9 June 2026

The UK's Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA) has announced plans to launch a new AI sandbox to expedite the development of medicines and improve safety.

Medtronic secures CE mark for Stealth AXiS system for ENT surgery

8 June 2026

The Stealth AXiS system is designed to assist surgeons in navigating sinus and skull base anatomies, clearing the way for its use in ear, nose, and throat (ENT) procedures across Europe.

EMA and AMA collaborate on Ebola trials amid public health emergency

4 June 2026

The European Medicines Agency (EMA) and the African Medicines Agency (AMA) are engaging to plan clinical trials amid the ongoing Ebola outbreak. This is the first time that both agencies have collaborated on a public health emergency since the AMA's inception.

Philips secures FDA 510(k) clearance for Elevate Plus AI ultrasound upgrade

3 June 2026

With the clearance, Philips brings workflow automation and image quality features to ultrasound, aiming to standardise routine examinations.